For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

MY ONLY PLEA

I have one request, this is my plea: do not harden your hearts.

If the information in this paper causes you to believe that new versions are corrupt, do not harden your heart. I am not attacking you for reading new versions, I am trying to warn you. And I am begging you: do not harden your heart concerning this topic.

I recommend that you read this entire paper, but, if you read and do nothing else, go to part 4, find your bible, and read what it has done.

GENERAL SOURCES

The goal of this paper is to take easily referenced notes, arguments, and content from the sources listed below. Here is a general list of sources and tools used throughout this entire paper.

Email TheOregonTrail@protonmail.com if you would like to ask a question, found an error throughout this paper, or have more evidence you would like to present to me (regarding either side of the debate).

BOOKS

These are all books written in favor of the KJV.

1. NEW AGE BIBLE VERSIONS, by G.A. Riplinger.
2. Look What's Missing, by David W. Daniels.
3. Neither Oldest Nor Best, David H. Sorenson.
4. NEW KING JAMES: THE BRIDGE BIBLE, by David W. Daniels.
5. NIV INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE EDITION, by Rev. D. A. Waite, Th.D., Ph.D.
6. 51 REASONS WHY THE KING JAMES, by David W. Daniels.
7. Ripped out of the Bible, by Floyd Nolen Jones.
8. LET'S WEIGH THE EVIDENCE: Which Bible is the REAL Word of God? By Barry Burton.

These are the tools I have used to research the pro-modern-bible side of the argument.

1. THE KING JAMES VERSION DEBATE: A Plea for Realism by D.A.Carson. (This is considered by many to be the best argument against using/only using the KJV Bible.)
2. Hundreds of hours studying the research done by Mark Ward.
3. Hundreds of hours of online research.

USE OF AI

Many consider AI to be a dangerous tool to use, and it is very powerful. I use AI sparingly, but when it is used, I will show you were. I have done this to hopefully prevents those who are biased against AI researching methods, from discounting all of my research here.

These are AI models that were used to uncover information on both sides of the argument.

- ChatGPT

- Grok
- Gab AI

* Indicates a topic or source that was uncovered with the help of an AI model (ChatGPT, Grok, etc.). The facts and sources themselves are independently studied and verified by the author. No AI model is taken at it's word.

VERIFICATION TOOLS

In studying and comparing bible verses in different bible "versions," I found these tools especially helpful:

1. KJV Bible.
2. The corrupted NIV bible

Throughout the paper, these abbreviations will be shown to indicate a bible version is inaccurate in a certain field. Just because a version's abbreviation isn't there, doesn't necessarily mean that the it shouldn't be there.

Also, only the KJV and other untainted biblical manuscripts will be given the upper-case "B" (Bible) in this paper. All other translations and manuscripts will be given a lower-case b (bible).

I have done my very best to give you the most accurate results (as we are dealing with the very words of God), but I am still under the curse and many errors have no doubt made their way into my work.

PART 1: THE BIG STUFF

This first part will contain the details on the major changes these new versions make.

BLASPHEMY

Whether they mistranslated something, or forget a word, blasphemy is not okay in a bible. NO MATTER WHAT YOU OR ANYONE ELSE THINKS.

LUCIFER

Other bible "translations" blaspheme Jesus Christ our Lord.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	ESV	WRONG IN
How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! . . . Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.	Isaiah 14:12- 15	How you have fallen from heaven, O morning star, son of the dawn! . . But you are brought down to the grave, to the depths of the pit.*	How you are fallen from heaven, O Day Star, son of the dawn . . . But you are brought down to the grave.	AMP, ASV, CEB, CEV, CJB, CSB, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, ISV, JB, NAB, NASB, NCV, NET, NIV, NirV, NRS, MSG, RSV, WEB
*New versions don't say "hell" here, but that is how it should have been translated. See NO MORE HELL on page 24 to find out why this word is translated wrong.

The Hebrew word translated as Lucifer in the KJV is "helel, ben shachar." When accurately translated, it is "Lucifer, son of the morning." And just in case you didn't know: Lucifer is the Devil, Satan.

Almost every single new bible version translates "Lucifer, son of the morning!" as "the bright morning star." They treat it as if the Hebrew had been "shachar kokab, ben shachar." They add the word "kokab" (which appears nowhere in the Hebrew text) and use the word "shachar" twice (which appears only once in the original text)¹.

"Bogar kokab" is used in Job 38:7 to convey the phrase "morning star." It could have been used again in Isaiah, but instead we have the word "helel," which appears nowhere else in the Old Testament, just like Lucifer in the KJV.

So they translated this part wrong, and blasphemed Jesus Christ.

In Revelation 22:16, Jesus identifies himself as "the bright and morning star." The NIV and NASB do the same.

I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. (KJV, Revelation 22:16)

"The Day Star" is Jesus too. This is identified in 2 Peter 1:19.

New versions are saying that Jesus will be thrown into hell because of his pride. Blasphemy.

How could this happen? Research concludes that the translation was based on classic mythology for the planet Venus². Because Satan has been connected with that planet and it is called the morning star.

As if that is not already blasphemy, the NASB also puts the reference for 2 Peter 1:19 (which speaks of Christ) next to Isaiah 14:12 (which when accurately translated, speaks of Satan), just to solidify the notion that the passage is referring to the same person.

New Agers accuse Christians of worshiping Satan unawares. In the Theosophical Glossary (which is a major resource for New Agers) we read:

[T]he Christian savior is made to say of himself in Revelation XVI:22, [sic] I am the bright morning star or Lucifer.

The Christian . . . without suspecting the real meaning . . . greeted the Morning Star, Venus, Lucifer, The Trinity was in truth composed of the Sun (the Father) . . . Venus (the Holy Ghost) . . . and Lucifer, as Christ, the bright and morning star. The Verbum (the word) and Lucifer are one. . .³

[I]t is inappropriate to the passage to think Satan is meant⁴

Pure blasphemy.

NKJV, NIV, AND LUCIFER

In 2016, Fox Broadcasting initiated a program called Lucifer. The Fox Broadcasting Facebook page announced:

"Lucifer's waiting for you. Tune into Fox right now."

The "star" of the program is Lucifer himself, coming to earth as a man, and taking the last name "Morningstar." Viewers who never had read occult literature, see Lucifer portrayed as a handsome super-hero, who has been misunderstood and mistreated by God. This is exactly how occult literature portrays him.

The media is calling the program "redemption for the Devil." Viewers can even "Tweet" questions to Lucifer while the show is being aired.

Why is it surprising that the publishers of the new versions are also the producers of this evil show? To quote the NKJV or the NIV, you must go to the person who also owns the copyrights to The Satanic Bible and the show Lucifer—Rupert Murdoch.

Rupert Murdoch, who's bible's blaspheme the our Lord Jesus Christ, has been described by the secular press as "journalism's prince of darkness."⁵

HIDING SATAN

Constance Cumby observed the terrible trend in new bible versions:

Interestingly, as many New Age groups work to extol Lucifer's name, there has been a parallel movement within Christianity to clear his name and disassociate him from any Satanic identity.⁶

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.	Luke 4:8	Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.'"	AMP, ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CJB, CSB, DBY, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, ISV, JB, LB, LEB, NASB, NCV, NET, NIV, Nlrv, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, WNT

MAKING JESUS A LIAR

God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? (KJV, Numbers 23:19)

According to God's word, God cannot, and will not lie. So if your bible shows God a liar, that is a corrupted bible. That is now what the Bible calls "mans word."

In John 7:8, Jesus' disciples are getting ready to go down to Jerusalem. They are going down to attend a feast—as required by Jewish law. Jesus' disciples ask him if he's coming to the feast.

"Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. For there is no man that doeth anything in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world."

Now, Jesus at this point has two options.

1. Stay in Galilee and break the Law of Moses.
2. Go on out into public and possibly get killed by the Jewish leaders.

The Jews desperately want to kill Jesus, so if He goes with his disciples, He risks getting killed.

Depending on the bible you use, you see this response.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.	John 7:8	You go to the festival. I am not going up to this festival, because my time has not yet fully come.	ASV, CEB, DBY, DRA, ESV, GNB, JB, LEB, NASB, NET, NIV, NLT, NRS, RSV

For the first time in his life, Jesus breaks Jewish law. The law that He Himself gave to Moses.

But hold on, it's not over yet.

But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. (KJV, John 7:10)

According to new bibles, Jesus didn't break the Law of Moses, He just lied to His brothers.

In these new versions, Jesus first tells his brothers that he isn't going to the feat (which is a sin), but then sneaks off to the feast anyway (which means he just lied, which is a sin too).

But the KJV tells the true story. The difference is all made in one little word: "yet"

Look at John 7:8 again. It makes sense, He isn't saying He isn't going up, He is saying that He isn't yet going up. The disciples ask Jesus if he's coming, he says "I go not up yet," then secretly comes in after them. Just as a perfect Jesus would.

The new versions make Jesus a liar. Blasphemy.

WHY?

Well, the new version translators put their bibles together with a manuscript that many would call a piece of trash. This manuscript was so messed up, that it was corrected and put in St. Catherine's monastery in the desert. This was done to make a final copy (that was never made).

This garbage is used in 21 bibles.

Yes, 21 bibles miss the word "yet" because they are using a flawed manuscript.

THE DELETED WORDS OF JESUS

If your bible takes out the words of Jesus, you had better be very careful.

In Luke, Jesus is heading to Jerusalem. This was normal to do, because Jews had to travel to Jerusalem for the Feast of Tabernacles. It was also typical to avoid Samaritans. They were a mixed race—not pure Jews.

Samaria was located in the middle of the Holy Land, and to avoid it, many Jews had to go miles out of their way.

Jews by definition, did not want to step foot on Samaritan land. But that is exactly what Jesus started to do. They came to "a village of the Samaritans," and Jesus sent messengers ahead of Him to ask permission to enter in and find lodging. But when they new he was headed for Jerusalem, they refused him.

Two of Jesus' disciples got very angry at this.

And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? (KJV, Luke 9:54)

In a modern bible, this is how Jesus responds:

But Jesus turned and rebuked them. (Luke 9:55, NIV)

Well, it would have been nice to know what Jesus said—and you do, if you have a KJV Bible. In the KJV Bible, it is perfectly recorded:

But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. (KJV, Luke 9:55-56)

Wow! And to think, a whopping 33 new versions leave this out? Who thought it was a good idea to censor the words of God?

See Luke 9:56 in MISSING PHRASES AND WORDS on page 44 to see which bible versions leave this out.

OKAY WITH RAPE?

Is God okay with rape? No. God is not.

New versions have confused a lot of people on this issue though. Many claim that God tells Israel: if a man rapes a woman, then the man can force the woman to marry him. Many argue why a loving, just, perfect God would allow this.

Here is the answer: the true God doesn't—the new bible god does.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found; Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.	Deuteronomy 22:28-29	If a man happens to meet a virgin who is not pledged to be married and rapes her and they are discovered, he shall pay her father fifty shekels of silver. He must marry the young woman, for he has violated her. He can never divorce her as long as he lives.	BBE, CSB, ERV, GNB, ISV, NCV, NIV, NIrV, MSG

The KJV doesn't say that the man raped the woman—that's an assumption that the new versions make.

In fact, the Bible has very specific instructions for those who rape women: kill them. These instructions are seen in Deuteronomy 22:25-26. Literally right before Deuteronomy 22:28-29.

Deuteronomy 22:25-26 speaks of rape; the man that raped a woman dies.

Deuteronomy 22:28-29 show the consequences of a man laying with a woman before marriage; they both must marry.

ATTACKING DOCTRINE

Very sadly, a lot of people don't care what's in their bible, so long as the changes don't alter the main message of salvation. And most people don't think these changes do do anything to the main message. They just believe that "they only disagree about the small things."

Ask yourself this, are the following changes small?

GOD IN THE FLESH

In 1 Timothy 3:16 the KJV undeniably points out that Jesus Christ is God—but only if you have a KJV.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh , justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.	1 Timothy 3:16	Beyond all question, the mystery from which true godliness springs is great: He appeared in the flesh , was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.	ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CSB, CJB, DBY, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, ISV, JB, LB, NAB, NASB, NET, NIV, NIrV, NLT, MSG, RSV, TS2009, WNT

The new versions now say "He" instead of "God," and now you have no idea that Jesus is God from this verse.

THE TRINITY

1 John 5:7 is the clearest verse in the Bible regarding the Trinity. But not in the new versions.

In the KJV it says:

For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. (KJV, 1 John 5:7-8)

New versions took a butchers blade to this part of Scripture:

1. New versions come along and remove everything in verse 7 except for: "And there are three that bear witness in heaven."
2. They get rid of "And there are three that bear witness in earth" in verse 8.

You now no longer have the Trinity in this passage.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth , the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.	1 John 5:7-8	For there are three that testify: the Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement.	AMP, ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CSB, CJB, DBY, ERV, ESV, GNB, HNV, ICB, ISV, JB, NAB, NASB, NCV, NET, NIV, NIrV, NLT, NRS, RSV, TS2009, WEB, WNT

WHO CAME IN THE FLESH?

In Romans 14:10-11, the KJV shows that Jesus Christ is God. But not in the new versions.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ . For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God .	Romans 14:10-11	You, then, why do you judge your brother or sister ? Or why do you treat them with contempt? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. It is written: " 'As surely as I live,' says the Lord, 'every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God .' "	AMP, ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CJB, CSB, DBY, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, HNV, ICB, ISV, JB, LB, NAB, NASB, NET, NIV, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRS, WEB, WNT

From the KJV you see that every man will stand before the judgment seat of Christ, and then in the next verse you see that you will confess to God. Thus, Jesus is God.

But not in the new versions.

WHO'S BLOOD?

In Acts 20:28, the Bible says that God purchased the church with His own blood. But new versions change it.

KJV	LOCATION	RSV	WRONG IN
Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God , which he hath purchased with his own blood .	Acts 20:28	Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God which he obtained with the blood of his own Son .	CEB, CEV, CJB, DBY, GNB, NCV, NET, NRS, RSV, WNT

The very blood of God turns into the blood of Christ in new versions. The blood in this verse is the blood of Christ, that is seen in either version. But what isn't seen in the new versions is that Jesus' blood is also the blood of God. Christ is God in the KJV, not in new versions.

THE SON OF WHO?

John 9:35 clearly says (in the KJV) that Jesus is the "Son of God." But new versions change it to the "Son of Man."

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?	John 9:35	Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man? "	AMP, BBE, CEB, CEV, CSB, CJB, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, ISV, JB, NAB, NASB, NCV, NET, NIV, Nlrv, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, WEB

See how these new versions have removed the fact that Jesus is God? Thanks to this, people can now say: "there are few places the Bible actually says Jesus is God."

CHRIST'S ORIGIN?

Does Jesus Christ have an origin? A start? A beginning?

No. But this verse may seem to indicate otherwise in new versions.

Notice how the KJV makes perfect sense. It's a prophecy of Jesus Christ. It's still obviously a prophecy of Christ in the new versions too, except now Christ isn't "everlasting."

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.	Micah 5:2	"But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel, whose origins are from of old, from ancient times. "	AMP, CEB, CEV, CJB, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, JB, NAB, NET, NCV, NIV, Nlrv, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, WEB

This is BLASPHEMY.

VIRGIN BIRTH?

Is it Blasphemy to say that Jesus wasn't born of a virgin? Yes it is. Because if Jesus Christ wasn't born of a virgin, he was just another man.

But behold; the new versions corrupt this too.

KJV	LOCATION	RSV	WRONG IN
Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive , and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.	Isaiah 7:14	Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, a young woman shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Imman'u-el.	BBE, CEB, CJB, GNB, ISV, NAB, NET, NRS, RSV

In Luke 1:34, Mary asks the angel how she will have a son seeing that she has "know not a man."

KJV	LOCATION	RSV	WRONG IN
Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?	Luke 1:34	And Mary said to the angel, "How shall this be, since I have no husband? "	RSV, WNT

Not having a husband obviously doesn't stop a woman from having a son. I wish it did, but it doesn't.

JESUS' FATHER?

Is it blasphemy if a bible version says that Joseph was Jesus Christ's father? Yes.

Sounds like something out of a nightmare.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.	Luke 2:33	The child's father and mother marveled at what was said about him.	ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CSB, CJB, DBY, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, ISV, NAB, NASB, NCV, NET, NIV, NIV, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, WNT

Blasphemy.

BASIC DOCTRINE

What is a Christian? What can and can't they do? And how do they act? These questions are answered in the Bible, but you will find that the new versions are very ambiguous when it comes to the details.

RIGHT AND WRONG

You hear a lot about "my truth," and "your truth," nowadays. Were truth is subjective, and up for private interpretation. You can't call someone a liar, because its "their truth." New Agers have been pushing this for years—and America is falling to their efforts.

it is commonly stated:

Truth is basically relative; what is right and true for you may not be right and true for me.

The Bible warned us of this, in Deuteronomy 12:8 it is stated:

Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

The New Agers are promising people a religion were you cannot do wrong and a god who won't judge anyone. It's not just the New Agers who made this possible though, the new versions are to blame as well.

Look, see, Christians won't judge.

KJV	LOCATION	NASB	WRONG IN
Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.	Romans 14:1	Now accept the one who is weak in faith, but not for the purpose of passing judgment on his opinions.	AMP, CEB, CEV, CJB, DBY, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, HNV, ICB, ISV, JB, LB, LEB, NAB, NASB, NET, NCV, Nlrv, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, TS2009, WEB, WNT

New bible "versions" remove the words that convey to the reader exactly what is forbidden—like "fornication," and they replace them with "immorality."

The word "immorality" has no description of what is forbidden whatsoever. Doesn't that scare you a little?

Immorality: State or quality of being immoral.

Immoral: Not moral

Fornication: Illicit sexual intercourse on the part of an unmarried person.

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS
fornication	Romans 1:29	OMITTED
fornication	1 Corinthians 5:1 1 Corinthians 6:13 1 Corinthians 6:18 2 Corinthians 12:21 Ephesians 5:3 Colossians 3:5 Revelation 2:14 Revelation 2:20 Revelation 9:21 Revelation 14:8 Revelation 17:2 Revelation 18:3 Revelation 18:9 Revelation 19:2	immorality
commit fornication	1 Corinthians 10:8	act immorally
fornicators	1 Corinthians 5:9 1 Corinthians 5:10 1 Corinthians 5:11	immoral people
Adultery, fornication	Galatians 5:19	immorality

The word "immoral," or "immorality" where used even though the Greek New Testament word in each place is porneau, porne, pornos, and porneia.

And another thing that doesn't help, is when the NASB calls natural what God calls a sin.

KJV	LOCATION	NASB	WRONG IN
This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual , devilish.	James 3:15	This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, natural , demonic.	CEB, DBY, NET, NASB
Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.	James 5:17	Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.	AMP, CSB, ESV, HNV, LEB, NASB, NKJV, RSV, WEB, WNT

"Whore" has a specific definition.

Whore: to have unlawful sexual intercourse.

Whoremonger: lecher; a man giving to whoring.

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS
whoremonger	Ephesians 5:5	immorality
whoremonger	1 Timothy 1:10	immoral men
whoremonger	Revelation 21:8	immoral person
whoremongers	Revelation 22:15	immoral persons

The changes in these new versions are no doubt gratifying to liberals.

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS
them that defile themselves with mankind.	1 Timothy 1:10	homosexual

A person named Marrs once predicted that "Satan would author an unholy New Age bible, with no restrictions on man's desire to enjoys a licentious lifestyle." This is coming true.

Between 1985 and 1991, university students were ask, "What is immorality?" Responses ranged from "pollution" to political issues.

In the NIV, they use "sexual immorality" instead of the KJV's "fornication." It fared no better though. When ask, "What is sexual immorality?" Student response ranged from "one night stands" to various situational scenarios.

But in all cases, it was subjective morality. Fornication does not allow for personal interpretation.

An anxious mother once called Moody Broadcasting's Open Line program, she ask Pastor Cole where in the bible she could show her son that it stated sex before marriage was a sin. Very sadly, he wasn't able to give a verse.

Bibles that do not use the clear outlined definition of fornication, leave parents defenseless in the battle for their children.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV, et al.	ISV, et al.
effeminate	1 Corinthians 6:9	OMITTED	male prostitutes

Here, the word "effeminate" is removed or replaced with "male prostitutes."

The phrase "male prostitutes" speaks for itself, but what does "effeminate" mean?

Effeminate: Having some characteristic of a woman, as delicacy, luxuriousness, etc.; soft or delicate to an unmanly degree; womanish; weak. Womanlike; womanly; tender.

Removing this word is wrong, and replacing it doesn't match the meaning. The phrase "male prostitutes" is very specific, but the word "effeminate" covers much more ground.

Modern men would do well to take heed to this.

In the KJV, any sexual act was described in words that didn't drag our minds into sin. It was so well worded that children could listen to the Bible being read, or even read it themselves. But the new versions are blatant and inappropriate, that some do not let their children read or hear certain parts of their bible.

This is truly a perversion of God's word.

The ambiguous words used in modern bibles is done for sales. "After all, we are in the entertainment business," says Rupert Murdoch.¹ Marketing has pressured the use of wording that allows for the greatest variety of interpretation.

I do not need to tell you how evil and wicked this world has become. It is full of sexual sin. It's even as if the modern Christian is saying:

I also like suggestive dancing, movies, and drinking, and trying to enjoy sex for recreational purposes.

How coincidental.

What is a Christian? What is expected? We look to the Bible to see. But new versions are quite ambiguous.

Don't you just love: "so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work." That word really spells out the expectation of Christians: "adequate"

Perfection is very censored in the new versions.

Some of the things above have completely opposite meanings.

For example: "despised" or "without honor." One means your despised, the other means that you have no honor, which means that if you are despised, it is not without reason.

RIGHTEOUS OR WEALTHY?

Is a Christian "pure," "righteous," and "perfect," or "wealthy," "rich," and "successful."

New versions have twisted the word of God and made a lie.

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS

Imagine, new Christians are undoubtedly trying to learn how to live, and if they read a new version, they are reading something completely different. They are reading about how the Christian is prosperous and wealthy. What happens when this doesn't become reality? What happens when we don't have the powers these new versions promise?

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN

Even less righteousness can be expected if NRSV collaborator, Philip Comfort, gets his way and new versions start using manuscripts like Papyrus Bodmer.

KJV	LOCATION	PAPYRUS BODMER, et al.

Herbert M. Wolf, a committee member of the NIV, admits that the NIV's switch from "righteousness" to "prosperity" was a non-literal translation. He writes:

[N]on-literal translations enhance accuracy . . . The word tsedeqah--normally rendered "righteousness" is translated "prosperity", perhaps understood as the reward of righteous living . . . The abstract quality of "righteousness" does not fit. . .²

Non-literal translations can never be as accurate as the original—definitely never more accurate than the original—because they substitute the authors theological views for the real meaning of the text.

CORRUPTED PRAYER

New versions corrupt the way in which we should pray, and mask how important prayer is. The following verses' meanings have been completely changed.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name , he will give it you.	John 16:23	In that day you will no longer ask me anything. Very truly I tell you, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.	ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CJB, ERV, GNB, JB, NIV, Nlrv, NCV, MSG, RSV
If ye shall ask any thing in my name , I will do it.	John 14:14	You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.	AMP, BBE, CEB, CEV, CSB, CJB, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, ISV, LEB, NAB, NASB, NCV, NIV, Nlrv, NLT, NRS, WNT

In new versions, there is a contradiction between John 16:23 and John 14:14. One says “ask the Father,” the other says “ask me”.

The new translations add contradictions to the Bible that were never there before.

Apart from corrupting the way we should pray, some versions remove prayer completely.

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS
watch and pray	Mark 13:33	keep on the alert

Prayer's powerful partner—fasting—also disappears in new versions.

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS

give yourselves to fasting and prayer	1 Corinthians 7:5	devote yourselves to prayer

These “translations” have also corrupted the Lord's prayer.

In Luke 11:2 Jesus teaches his disciples how to pray, he teaches them to pray to The Father in heaven.

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven , Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. Give us day by day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.	Luke 11:1-4	He said to them, "When you pray, say: " 'Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation. ' "	AMP, ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CSB, CJB, DBY, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, ISV, JB, LB, LEB, NAB, NASB, NCV, NET, NIV, NIV, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, WNT

The bold shows the words removed from modern versions; including the NIV, the NASB, NRSV, Good News for Modern Man, New Century Version, The New Jerusalem Bible, and The New American Bible.

This prayer does not imply who to pray too. "Father" in this prayer could refer to Satan. And many New Agers address their gods as so.

1. The word "Our" had to go, because it clearly testifies against the New Age belief in a "universal" God.
2. The phrase "which art in heaven," clarifies that you should pray to the Lord God of Israel.
3. The phrase "thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth" acts the same, it implies the God of Israel.
4. And the phrase "but deliver us from evil" undeniably points away from Satan, and toward the Lord God.

Since all these phrases indicate the Lord God of Israel, they all had to go.

NO MORE HELL

If Satan was confusing things through these bible versions—removing what is wrong, what is expected of a Christian, confusing how Christians should pray, giving Christians the expectation of riches instead of righteousness, and wanting people to worship him—Satan would likely erase the eternal punishment for not following God—eternal damnation, burning with fire, in hell.

In Mathew 25:41, Jesus warns us:

Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

Hell is a terrifying place, and an affront to proud mankind. And while hell is impossible to completely remove, they have hidden hell with "death," "grave," "sheol," "hades," and "the depths."

None of these words, "death," "grave," "sheol," "hades," or "the depths," gives a clearer view of what lies ahead for the unsaved than the word "hell."

Agnostics, atheists, humanists, Jehovah Witnesses, and a variety of other cults believe eternal death, not hell, lies beyond this life.

DEATH

NIV editor, R. Laird Harris, said:

In the face of these theological differences, a number of modern translations simply do not translate the word [hell] . . . [It] may well stand for eternal death.³

Luciferians voice a similar opinion:

Whenever the word "hell" occurs in the translations . . . it is unfortunate . . . in the original text it stands . . . [for] death . . . Hell and its sovereign are both inventions of Christianity.⁴

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS

	Job 26:6
	Proverbs 23:14
	Proverbs 27:20
	Isaiah 28:18
	Isaiah 57:9

The Hebrew word for death, muth or maveth appears in none of these verses. The NIV editors admitted that their personal theology (which is identical to many cults) took a back seat while they translated. Yet the NIV editors still use "death" instead of "hell."

NIV editor Larry Walker said:

The committee did not feel absolutely bound to the Hebrew text . . . The other Canannite deity, mot (death) . . . is personified. . .⁵

NIV editor R. Laird Harris states:

This view [hell] has some problems. [It] . . . refers only to death, not to . . . any punishment. . .⁶

Jehovah Witnesses absolutely agree:

The doctrine of a burning hell . . . after death cannot be true. A dead person is unconscious, inactive. The soul is dead.⁷

And Armstrongism:

The concept of hell is part and parcel folklore . . . as a place of punishment . . . When a human being dies he is dead.⁸

GRAVE

Here, the NIV editors have erased hell. According to these verses there is no hell, no eternal punishment, just the grave.

NIV editor R. Laird Harris says this about using the word "grave":

The NIV translators . . .came to a decision regarding the meaning of the word [hell] . . .the meaning grave fits . . .The translation grave is the most appropriate one. The terms [hell and grave] are synonymous . . .no more than darkness, dissolution, and dust of the tomb . . .to lie in the dust . . .decay or perish in the grave.⁹

And then the Jehovah Witnesses agree:

[Hell] applies to the common grave of all mankind . . .The words contain no thought of or hint of pain.¹⁰

NIV editor R. Laird Harris says this regarding these terms:

Its translation brings up a number of theological . . . matters. [T]here is discussion as to what it means . . . a number of modern versions simply do not translate the word . . . They . . . leave each reader to decide for himself. . .¹¹

The Assyrian culture introduced the idea of hades being an intermediate state. They called it the Elysian or Happy Fields. It was described as having silver skies, resplendent courts, and being the abode of blessedness.

The Egyptian Hades was called "Amenti," a place of dreamless sleep.

In Greek mythology's Prometheus, Hercules, the Sun god descends into Hades' cave of Initiation. Aeschylus wrote that this "Meadow of Hades" was the place where both good and evil people were purified by doing good works.

Does Jesus leave it up to "each reader to decide for himself" what he means when he says in Mathew 25:41:

Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

What part of "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire. . ." leaves room for doubt? Jesus sure knew hell was a real place, but NIV and New Testament editors believe otherwise.

THE LOVE OF MONEY

Are the new bible versions created to make money? Of course they are. They aren't translating the texts correctly, they just substitute their ideas for the word of God. So, it would be in their best interest to encourage giving.

Interestingly enough, only the KJV translates Romans 12:8 as "giveth with simplicity."

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN

From reading the autobiography of J.B. Phillips (NASB Interlinear Greek-English New Testament Forward, J.B. Phillips Translation) it is clear that he not only expects to receive royalties from the sales of these versions, but those who use "extended quotes . . .must expect to pay a proper copyright fee."

Is it any wonder then, that the verses that were meant to warn money-seekers, have been twisted?

SERVANTS OR SLAVES?

The translators are double minded. They translate words inconsistently. The Hebrew word "ebed" is translated as both "slaves" and "servants." The Greek word "pais" is inconsistently rendered as both "slaves" and "servants." "Doulos" is the word most often translated "slaves" in these new versions, but it becomes "servants" in Revelation 10.

Now, are Christian's promoted or demoted? New versions crack the whip, saying that Christian's are slaves to God.

This is the Webster definition of "slave" and "servant."

Slave: . . . a person held in bondage, a thrall. One who has lost control of himself, freedom of action. A drudge.

Servant: . . . one who exerts himself for the benefit of another master . . . as a public servant, an official of a government.

BAPTISM

Do you know what is required before someone is baptized? No? Not surprising. The one verse in the bible that explains this, is left out in almost all new versions.

In Acts, the story of a eunuch seeking Christ is told.

As a eunuch, this man is not allowed to be baptized. But he wants to follow Christ. So the eunuch asks this question:

See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? (KJV, Acts 8:36)

In new corrupt versions, Philip just commands the cariot to stand still, and baptizes the eunuch. The end. But your bible left something out. The KJV correctly include Acts 8:37. In this verse (which is removed in 30 English bibles) Philip actually answers the eunuch's question.

And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. (KJV, Acts 8:37)

So now you know what must be done before one is baptized.

Why would you not be upset when your bible literally is missing verse 37? Does no one wish to know God's word? Is it not alarm people when a whole verse is missing? It's not even hidden, it's just gone—36 straight to 38.

See Acts 8:37 in MISSING VERSES on page 39 to see which bible versions leave this out.

FAITH OR WORKS?

Is salvation acquired by faith or works? I bet you believe it's by faith. But your bible is confusing things.

Faith is hoping for things unseen. Faith is trusting God.

But faithfulness, that is being faithful to something. Not having faith in God, but obeying God. Don't get me wrong, obeying God is a great thing, but when the Bible specifically talks about faith, it should be translated "faith."

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.	John 3:36	"He who believes in the Son has eternal life; but he who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."	AMP, ASV, CJB, ERV, ESV, GNB, HNV, ICB, ISV, LB, LEB, NAB, NASB, NCV, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, TS2009, WEB, WNT

In these verses, it was all about unbelief. But new versions have corrupted the text and muddled the waters by replacing the word "unbelief" with "disobedience."

This is a perversion of God's word.

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.	2 Timothy 2:15	Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.	ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CSB, CJB, DBY, ERV, ESV, GNB, HNV, ICB, ISV, JB, LB, LEB, NAB, NASB, NCV, NET, NIV, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, TS2009, WEB, WNT

"Study" is easily understood—search and study the truth.

But what about "Do your best"? Best at what? But what should you be best at? You can't be best at everything. This merely confuses things.

WHAT'S DIFFERENT?

Here, you can compare your bible to others, and see what yours has removed or changed. And all the corruptions you see here, the KJV does not contain. As Christians, you would think we should try and grab the best bible—the Bible.

The modern bibles' New Testament base manuscripts are missing 2,922 words when compared to the KJV's base manuscripts¹. That's a lot of missing words.

This section won't show you nearly all these missing words, but it will show you a few.

MISSING VERSES

This is a compilation of all the verses that have been removed from various new versions. See what your bible is missing, and remember, this list does not contain verses that have been changed, only verses that have been removed.

This list will be portrayed in this fashion: a verse in from the KJV Bible will be shown, and words that the new versions remove will be in bold; then there will be a list showing the bibles that have this change, and the method of removal (i.e. see if the verse is completely gone, or just put in a footnote or brackets).

Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils. And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not. After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country. And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them. Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen. And every man went unto his own house. Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more. These are the symbols used to indicate the method of verse removal in bible versions:

- XXX = the verse has been completely removed.
- XXX = words are italics in that bible version.
- [XXX] = words are in brackets in that bible.
- [[XXX]] = words are in double brackets in the bible.
- |XXX| = verses are separated from the regular text, implying that they do not belong there.
- _XXX_ = the verse has been indented more than the regular text, to imply that they do not belong there.
- (XXX) = words are indicated not to be there in some way, but not removed.
- XXX^F = text is included, but a footnote indicates the words should not be there.

PART 2: THE SLIGHTLY SMALLER THINGS

This first part will contain the details on the smaller changes these new versions make to the Bible.

A NEW GOD

What if Satan is watering down the Bible through these new versions? What if he is slowly making it where you don't know whether to worship God or him. What would be the first step? You would think it would be removing the name of God.

And sadly, that is what you do see.

HIDING GOD

A lot of new translations remove identifying names like "Jesus," "Christ," and "God." They favor words such as "he," "him." These words can be used to refer to either Jesus Christ, God or Satan.

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS

In the corrupt Greek text, the title "of our Lord Jesus Christ" is removed, leaving the word "Father." And "Father" has been used from ancient Babylon to the present day as a name for Satan.

Here are some more verses that have conveniently blurred the line between the Lord God of Israel and Satan.

This is a huge piece left out for some reason.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever Amen.	Matthew 6:13	OMMITED	See Matthew 6:13 in MISSING PHRASES AND WORDS on page 41 to see which bible versions leave this out.

In the KJV, "the kingdom of God" is pretty specific about who's kingdom we're talking about. But in new versions, "his kingdom" tells you nothing about who's kingdom it is. It could be referring to Satan's kingdom for all we know.

And translating Luke 12:31 as "His kingdom" is a sin, because "the kingdom of God" is in 99 percent of all New Testament documents.

NO LONGER PERSONAL

While the new versions are removing names, they are at the same time, making God seem less personal by replacing the word "our," with "the."

Why does "our" have to go? Because the new version editors have parallel opinions to that of New Agers, and New Agers believe in the "universal fatherhood" of God. The word "our" is a clear witness against that belief.

THE SEXLESS "ONE" OF THE NEW AGE

The New Ager, Naomi Goldenberg (author of Changing of the Gods) said:

God is going to change . . . we women are going to bring . . . the end of Him.¹

God doesn't change, but in new bible versions they attempt to transfigure Him as they translate. "He," "him," and "Son" are out. and the gender-neutral "one" is in.

This is done even though the word in all the Greek texts are masculine, not neuter.

The New Age movement hopes to replace the "he" of Christianity with the neuter "One" of Hinduism (and from the looks of things, they are winning):

The One must move from the avante garde fringe to the very heart and mind of society. The whole society must be brought into harmony with the One as the New Consciousness produces the New Age.²

"The One" does not come from any of the original Greek or Hebrew texts. But in The Encyclopedia of Mysticism and Mystery Religions, the word "One" is defined as: Term for the Ultimate . . . in many mystical religions and philosophies.

The New Age resurrects the mystery religions the One's' three fold meaning.

1. 'The One' or 'the Only One' is Lucifer, the angel of this planet's evolution.
2. 'The One' or 'the Living One' is all of reality as described in pantheism or monism.
3. 'The Coming One' or 'The Mighty One' is Lord Maitreya's New Age Christ [antichrist].

Blavatsky admits the One is not the Holy One of Israel saying:

One is not Jehovah.

The Jewish Deity is . . . never the One Absolute All.

No God . . . called Jehovah . . . can be the One.

The One is superior to Elohim.

[T]he Unknown Unmanifested One, since it abounds in both sexes is—male and female—nor yet the Christian “Father” as the latter is a male and not androgyny.³

New versions again parrot pagans like Blavatsky saying “the One” is not Jesus Christ.

New “International” Versions adopt “the One”, and hide the God of Israel.

According to New Agers: stating that there is no one else besides God is pantheism. So the translators substitute the “One” for “God.”

In two of the verses I have shown, the title used, is almost identical to the title given to Satan by the Luciferians. I'll show them again for you.

NIV chief Edwin Palmer asserts that the terms "one" and "only" are modern and elegant substitutions. Historians though, have regarded the title as "old and evil."

Variations of this title occur other places.

So far every change has blurred who God is, and has made the God of Israel appear more like "the One" New Agers worship—also known as Satan.

NO RESPONSIBILITY

The Hindu belief that God is in all things, leads logically to the notion that it is he who is inspiring every action in the world—both good and evil. A Reasoned Look at Asian Religions describes pantheism and its denial of free will:

Each individual is part of the cosmic process. No man chooses his actions; they are determined for him.

NIV chief, Edwin Palmer also flatly denies free will and, at his own admission, "accepts the most illogical matters possible."

He takes what he call mystical faith to its illogical limits:

God is the One . . . God is all in all . . . There is none other besides him. He controls the thoughts and activities of all men. Is Sin within the Plan of a Holy God? Yes. All things are in the plan of God . . . even our sin and evil . . . If sin were not in his plan, then he would no longer be almighty. There would be forces outside of him. All things are foreordained by God: the moving of a finger . . . the opening of a window, the mistake of a pianist while playing--even sin . . . The Bible describes man as utterly passive in the whole matter.⁹

And Blavatsky completely agrees:

He is the One . . . But if the homogeneous One is no mere figure of speech . . . [he] must contain in itself the essence of both good and evil. If God is Absolute . . . whence comes Evil or D'Evil if not from the . . . Absolute. We are forced to accept the emanations of good and evil . . . as offshoots of the same trunk of the Tree of Being or to resign ourselves to believing in two eternal absolutes.¹⁰

But if God judges men by their actions, they must be free to act. Palmer's conclusion is truly "illogical." He says his changes in 1 Thessalonians 1:4 suggest the opposite of the KJV.

Islam has recently adopted this view and the evil which has ensued has had global effects. They believe:

[E]verything that happens results from God's choosing it to happen. When a man acts, God creates in him the will, the power and the intention to act.

Charles Manson, agreeing with Palmer, Blavatsky, and the Moslems asks, "If God is One, then what is bad?"

Those, like Manson, Blavatsky, and the NIV's Chief, Edwin Palmer, who see God as the One—driving both good and evil—call evil good (Isaiah 5:20). They are setting the stage for the slaughter of Christians during the tribulation.

Yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. (KJV, John 16:2)

The Hindu "bible," the Bhagavad Gita meaning Song of the Divine One, is currently very popular among New Agers. It is a lengthy tale in which "the One" tells Arjuna to be "utterly passive" (to use Palmer's words) as he kills in God's service. "The One," that is, the universe, is merely cleansing itself.

Dark Secrets of the New Age says that the Christian failure to trust the One will be fatal. Just as was forewarned in Revelation 20:4:

beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands.

And those killed will not seen as martyrs, all references to martyrs have been removed in many new versions—even though the Greek word here is martus: meaning martyr.

PROPHECY

Genesis 3:15 is the first prophecy of Jesus Christ in the KJV, but new versions mask this:

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed ; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.	Genesis 3:15	And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers ; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."	CEB, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, HNV, JB, LB, LEB, ICB, ISV, NAB, NET, NIV, NLT, NRS, MSG, WEB

Even though "offspring" can be either singular or plural, it automatically sounds plural in our minds. The prophecy is no longer about Eve's seed (seed indicating one man), it is about her offspring (offspring now seemingly indicating many men).

Some versions completely eradicate the prophecy, for example, in the CEB:

I will put contempt between you and the woman, between your offspring and hers. They will strike your head, but you will strike at their heels." (CEB, Genesis 3:15)

How do we know the KJV is right in Genesis 3:15? Well, in Galatians 3:16 you see exactly what this meant.

Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. (KJV, Galatians 3:16)

From Galatians 3:16, it is clear that Genesis 3:15 is referring to Christ. But new versions mask this prophecy with the word "offspring."

THE ANTICHRIST

New Age matriarch Alice Bailey's chapter, The Doctrine of the Coming One, has been read by legions of New Agers. In it she states:

Humanity in all lands today awaits the Coming One—no matter what name they may call him . . . Then shall the Coming One appear, his footsteps hastened through the valley of the Shadow of the One of awful power who stands upon the mountain top . . . Let death fulfill the purpose of the Coming One.

A careful re-reading of this quote in the light of scripture reveals the following facts:

1. "the Coming One" is the Antichrist: "him, whose coming is after the working of Satan" (KJV, 2 Thessalonians 2:9)
2. "the One" is Satan: "I will sit upon the mount . . . (KJV, Isaiah 14:13) . . . he was a murderer from the beginning." (KJV, John 8:44)

THE ONE OF THE NEW AGE

The One is coming in the new versions too.

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS

he that is mighty	Luke 1:49	the Mighty One
the mighty God	Psalms 50:1	the Mighty One
the LORD God	Joshua 22:22	the Mighty One

God is clearly the mighty one of Israel, the mighty one of Jacob, or the mighty God, but never the Mighty One.

It is a gross perversion of the original Bible languages. New versions were proceeded in their use of the "Mighty One" by occult literature, Lucifer Publishing Company (which is now Lucis Trust for public relations reasons) published their Great Invocation in popular magazines like Reader's Digest. It was used to invoke their "Mighty One".

Let the Lord's of Liberation issue forth
Let the Rider from the Secret Place come forth

And coming, save
Come forth, O Mighty One
Let Light, and Love, and Power, and Death
Fulfill and purpose of the Coming One.¹

Blavatsky called her "god" Lucifer, "the Mighty One," in both volumes of her Secret Doctrine. Rosicrucian books like Science of the Soul do likewise. These are rooted in esoteric Buddhism's "the Mighty One" and the Egyptian Book of the Dead's "mighty One."

MEDITATION

Millions of meditators see the new versions as yielding sofas, cradling them and making them quite comfortable as they sit and meditate to "the One." Toward a World Religion for a New Age tells readers:

Through meditation man can seek guidance from "the One" called Lord Maitreya.

Note how the following New Age groups, such as Transcendental Meditation, the World Instant of Cooperation, the New Group of World Servers, as well as Harvard professors and a host of Hindus, call on "the One" in their moments of meditation.

1. "The One Preserver and Power of the Universe" was the object of the World Instant of Cooperation when nearly 900 million participants, including the U.S. Pentagon's Meditation Club, joined this worldwide "meditation" to "the One." It was orchestrated by New Age leader John Price whose work is initiated by his "spirit guide Asher, the Awakened One."
2. "The One" is invoked on every line of the mantra for the New Group of World Servers. Members, like Notre Dame University's President Theodore Hesburg, are helping the coming of the New Age "Christ."
3. "[T]he One Being . . . the One Spirit" are represented by the universal mantra OM.
4. "One" is the mantra recommended by the Harvard Medical School cardiologist Herbert Benson in his book touting the physiological benefits of meditation.

"The One" is used to conjure the Hindu devis in Transcendental Meditation's compulsory initiation ceremony. Initiates kneel in a candle lit room before a swastika marked picture while the initiator chants "the One" in Sanscrit.

Eastern meditation has taken America by force in the appearance of "Yoga."

TRANSCENDENTAL MEDITATION CEREMONY EXCERPTS	THE BIBLE	LOCATION

"preceptor of this world"	"god of this world"	2 Corinthians 4:4
"the eye of knowledge has been opened by Him . . .the serpent (bejagindra) ever dwelling in my heart" [Transcendental Meditation initiators and recent exposes falsely give the translation of bujagindra as Brahman .]	"the serpent said . . .your eyes shall be opened knowing. . ." "Why hath Satan filled thine heart . . .?"	Genesis 3 Acts 5
"And therefore to O most beautiful . . .Dev . . .I bow down." [repeat 26 times]	"The devil said . . .if thou therefore wilt worship me. . ."	Luke 4

Occultists reveal that just as "Sat" means Satan, so "Dev" means Devil. The Serpent Power, a book written in the 1800s by British scholar Sir John Woodroff calls the specific mantras used by Transcendental Meditation, a "garland of letters," each letter summoning a Hindu "demon" (a legion for the price of one).

Transcendental Meditation Initiators are coached in methods to camouflage the noisome aspects of demonic activity and warned not to allow initiates to meditate more than a few minutes to prevent vomiting. A window is opened and incense burned to dispel offensive odors. The result of all this conjuring of "the One" is seen in a recent message channeled from one of "the legion" of devils.

[W]e are so close and so One—our legions are with your own. We mingle with you.²

The Transcendental Meditation initiation is just the beginning. "The One" follows his mantra with a mark, reveals The Rays and the Initiations.

[L]et him seek the mark . . .of the One initiator whose star shone forth.

And remember, the NIV and NASB substitute "star" for "Lucifer."

THE MARK

And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

That's Revelation 14:1 from the KJV, and along with Revelation 22:4, reveal that at one point, the Lamb will have "his Father's name" written in his servants foreheads. Revelation 7:3 and Revelation 9:4 also attest to God's people being "sealed in their foreheads."

Then Satan, in his typical counterfeit way, works through the antichrist to mark his own.

And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name . . .and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

All new versions, based on a tiny percentage of corrupt Greek manuscripts, make the fateful, and terribly terrifying addition of three words in Revelation 14:1.

...the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

Will this cause unwary men and women to take the mark of the beast? Will they take his mark before they think they will receive his Father's name?

New versions mimic "the name" found in the esoteric Dead Sea Scrolls. These tell of an Arabic Mahdi whose "Name" and initiation, if rejected, brings death and imprisonment during a 7 year period.³

In the tribulation (and new versions), "the name" is in, and the "Lord Jesus Christ" is out. Will "another Jesus" use RFID (microchips under the skin that store personal information; drivers license, credit card, social security number, etc.) to mark his followers?

And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. (KJV, Revelation 14:11)

The number six hundred threescore and six has been avoided for hundreds of years. It's evil connotations follow it where ever it is found.

New Agers are told to use the number six hundred threescore and six as much as possible. And the number, in the form of a mobius, appears on the cover of the New King James Version just as it does on the Aquarian Conspiracy.

And new bibles try to push the bad connotations of this number out the back door. In the NASB, a note nudges the reader to believe that the number to be avoided is in fact 616, no six hundred threescore and six. Readers are not told that the only two insignificant documents that record this error. Only manuscripts C and 11 show this number.

Does the mark go in one's hand, or on? This is very important.

The KJV's "in" makes sense if the mark of the beast is a micro-chip.

NEW AGE GOSPEL

The Bible is very clear, there is no way to God but by Jesus Christ our Lord. Sadly, new versions are blurring this fact.

JUST ANOTHER GOSPEL

In 1 John 4:14 the Bible says: "The Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world."

New Agers disagree with the word "the." They believe that: "A god, sent a son, with a message, to be a savior of each age."

And (very) sadly, the new version bibles appear to follow this belief.

the only begotten Son	John 1:18	the only begotten God	the only begotten god
"Monogenes" means "only begotten." "Monogenes" is what is there when the Bible says that Jesus Christ is the only begotten son of God. "Monogenes" gets broken into two parts. The first, "mono," means "only" or "one." "Genes" means "begotten," "born," or "come forth."

The best definition for "monogenes" is "only begotten."⁴

However, new versions just kind of forget about the second part of that word: "Genes."

KJV	LOCATION	NEW VERSIONS
only begotten of the Father	John 1:14	only Son
the only begotten Son	John 1:18	only Son
only begotten Son	John 3:16	only Son
only begotten Son of God	John 3:18	only Son
only begotten son	Hebrews 11:17	only son

Even though the word is always "monogenes" new versions many times don't translate it correctly.

HAS CHRIST COME IN THE FLESH?

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist	1 John 4:3	but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world.	ASV, BBE, CEB, CEV, CSB, CJB, DRA, ERV, ESV, GNB, ICB, ISV, JB, LB, LEB, NAB, NASB, NCV, NET, NIV, NIV, NLT, NRS, MSG, RSV, WNT

Okay, you need to confess that Christ has come in the flesh. That's specific and easy to test. Alarming, this test is partly hidden in new versions.

But, other than not warning people about how to see antichrists, what else have they done?

KJV	LOCATION	NIV	WRONG IN
And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh , justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.	1 Timothy 3:16	Beyond all question, the mystery from which true godliness springs is great: He appeared in the flesh , was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.	See GOD IN THE FLESH on page 10 to see which versions have this wrong.

Here, God coming down to earth is taken away and hidden in new bibles. The fact that God came down to man is not here. It is gone in almost all versions.

Of the 300 Greek manuscripts that contain 1 Timothy 3:16, five omit the word "God." Regardless of this, the NIV and NASB have a footnote that says, "some later mss read God." What this note should say is, "some mss read who."

The five manuscripts that don't say "God," don't have full sentences either. There is no subject without "God."

To avoid having a clause with no subject, NIV and New World Translation bible's arbitrarily drop the word "who" and invent the word "He." The NASB retains the "who" but puts "He" before it. And Phillip's Translation uses "one" before "who."

By making these changes, the new versions have not even stayed true to these five manuscripts.

READING THE KJV

Everyone knows that the KJV is harder to read than new versions. Even if that were true, would it justify the new versions? Would this fact erase all the corruption of these versions?

No.

But, unlike what you've been told, the new versions are not easier to read and understand.

According to research done using Flesch-Kincaid Level Indicators, newer versions are more difficult to understand than the KJV.

They use a formula to figure out how hard something is to read.

Here is how grades are computed: $(.39 \times \text{average number of words per sentence}) + (11.8 \times \text{average number of syllables per word}) - (15.59) = \text{grade level}$.

The higher the grade level, the harder to read and understand the version is.

	KJV	NIV	NASB	TEV	NKJV
Genesis 1	4.4	5.1	4.7	5.1	5.2
Malachi 1	4.6	4.8	5.1	5.4	4.6
Matthew 1	6.7	16.4	6.8	11.8	10.3
Revelation 1	7.5	7.1	7.7	6.4	7.7
GRADE LEVEL AVERAGE	5.8	8.4	6.1	7.2	6.9

According to this data, the KJV is the easiest to read.

	KJV	NIV	NASB	TEV	NKJV
John 1:1-21	3.6	3.6	4.2	5.9	3.9
Galatians 1:1-21	8.6	9.8	10.4	6.7	8.9
James 1:1-21	5.7	6.5	7.0	6.0	6.4

Why do no new versions beat the KJV? What makes this old version so much easier to read?

The answer is that the KJV uses one or two syllable words, and the new versions use multi-syllable words and phrases.

Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech. (KJV, 2 Corinthians 3:12)

The NASB substitutes "lividness of speech" here and takes this confusing and condescending speech from cover to cover.

WORDS AND SYLLABLES

Memorizing scripture is very important, and is the weapon of the Christian. Simple sentence structures and single syllable words certainly simplify this task. Satan surely is against man learning and memorizing scripture, so he no doubt is trying the make it harder.

And just so you know, God will not tolerate man adding to His word.

For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: (KJV, Revelation 22:16)

With that in mind:

UNFAMILIAR WORDS

Many I know point out the KJV's use of unfamiliar words, such as: "thee," "thou," "thy," and "ye." They point out that new versions replace these words with "you" and "your."

Firstly: "thee's" and "thou's" are not 1611 English, but Bible language. At the time of translation, these singular forms had been replaced in conversation by "you." The KJV preface and text reveals that it's style is that of the Hebrew and New Testament Greek.

Secondly: replacing the singular ("thee," "thou," "thy") and the plural ("ye") with "you" and "your" does not convey the original meaning correctly because these words do not have the same meaning. Here is just one example:

"Thou" is the subject form of the second-person singular pronoun. You would use it when referring to one person. For example, "Thou art a good friend" was a way of addressing a close friend. On the other hand, "you" was the subject form of the second-person plural pronoun. You would use it when addressing multiple people or a group.

And finally, unfamiliar words can be handled in one of two ways.

1. Use a dictionary. For very specific and correct definitions use the Oxford Unabridged, The Glossary of the Cambridge Interleaved Bible or The American Dictionary of the English Language, Noah Webster.
2. Use the Bible's self-containing dictionary. Use the context of one or more of the words occurrences.

The KJV is not Old English. It is Early Modern English¹. Not the exact words and phrases we use, but basically similar.

TEXT EXPLOSION

Many bible versions blow up the text of the Bible. For example, the AMP blows up this verse to the point you can't hardly understand it.

KJV	WORD	LOCATION	WORD	AMP
Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;	43	Hebrews 1:3	112	The Son is the radiance and only expression of the glory of [our awesome] God [reflecting God's Shekinah glory, the Light-being, the brilliant light of the divine], and the exact representation and perfect imprint of His [Father's] essence, and upholding and maintaining and propelling all things [the entire physical and spiritual universe] by His powerful word [carrying the universe along to its predetermined goal]. When He [Himself and no other] had [by offering Himself on the cross as a sacrifice for sin] accomplished purification from sins and established our freedom from guilt, He sat down [revealing His completed work] at the right hand of the Majesty on high [revealing His Divine authority],

Then you have text simplification, where the verse is much shorter and no longer even conveys the same meaning.

KJV	WORD	LOCATION	WORD	MSG
Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;	43	Hebrews 1:3	28	This Son perfectly mirrors God, and is stamped with God's nature. He holds everything together by what he says - powerful words! The Son Is Higher than Angels

WHY HAVE THEY DONE THIS?

The new "versions" are so much more complicated to read because they had to be. Well, they had to be in order to get around copyright laws. The new translators had to find words that the KJV hadn't already used, otherwise the new versions just couldn't be copyrighted—and the creators would not make the money they want.

The KJV Bible is the only Bible that isn't copyrighted.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS

This part will focus on some common misconceptions people may have because of the new versions.

THE NEPHILIM

In Genesis 6, the Bible tells a story.

And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. (KJV, Genesis 6:1-4)

A growing number of people think that fallen angels came down from the heavens and produced children with earthly women. Here are the arguments in favor and against this idea.

AGAINST

Lets look at verses 1-4.

Verse 1: Mankind multiplies across the earth. Daughters are born.

Verse 2: The "sons of God" marry these daughters. This is were many claim that the "sons of God" are fallen angels, but what's not to say that these were godly men? In a sense, the sons of God.

Verse 3: God says that His "spirit shall not always strive with man," and that man has 120 years before the flood wipe them out.

Verse 4: Giants are mentioned. The giants were there "when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men," and were in the earth "also after that." This would seem to imply that the giants were there before and after the "sons of God came in unto the daughters of men."

The word "Nephilim" is not found in the KJV, it is translated as "giant." You will see it in new versions though. But they don't tell you that the word "Nephilim" means giant, they tell a completely different story.

They tell you that the Nephilim were offspring of angels that came down and had children with mortal women.

But we need to asks some questions to figure out if this is true. Here are the two main questions we have:

1. Who were the "sons of God"?
2. Where the giants the same babies that the "sons of God" had with the daughters of men?

Here are the answers that the new versions are going to tell you that the "sons of God" are not the human race. They are angelic. And the giants are the offspring of these angelic beings.

But this is an assumption that doesn't come from the Bible. It comes from the corrupted texts. Look at the KJV and new bibles side by side.

KJV	LOCATION	GNB	ISV
. . .the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair;	Genesis 6:2	. . .the heavenly beings saw that these young women were beautiful,	. . . divine beings noticed how attractive human women were,
. . .when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them,	Genesis 6:4	. . .there were giants on the earth who were descendants of human women and the heavenly beings .	. . .when those divine beings were having sexual relations with those human women, who gave birth to children for them.

The KJV doesn't make the connection these new bibles feel free to make. And new versions are making the connection, because the original text doesn't imply this reading in any way.

It doesn't matter how much you want the Nephilim to be angel-human crossbreeds. If the Bible doesn't say they are, you can't make that jump. End of story.

Now, are angels allowed, and is it possible for them to have children with mortal women?

We aren't told a lot, but the Bible does say this:

For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. (KJV, Matthew 22:30)

Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. (KJV, Luke 24:39)

Jesus Himself seems to speak against the angel-human hybrid theory, but some people will point out the times when the Bible talks about angels having physical bodies. For example:

Genesis 18: three men visit Abraham, two of them are angels and are revealed to be able to eat real food.

Genesis 19: you see two angels that physically interact with Lot. Pulling him back inside a house, and grabbing him by the hand.

And as for the "sons of God," Christians are called the "sons of God" many times. The exact phrase "sons of God" appears six times referring to Christians.

- John 1:12
- Romans 8:19
- Romans 8:14
- 1 John 3:1
- 1 John 3:2
- Philippians 2:15

Another issue with saying that the Nephilim were the offspring of angelic beings and human women, is that the Nephilim show back up after the flood. In Numbers 13:33 you read:

And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight. (KJV, Numbers 13:33)

The word giant in the passage is Nephilim, and it is translated that way in many other bibles. With that, how could the Nephilim come back after the flood? This presents a huge issue to the angel-human hybrid theory.

The Bible makes it very clear that nothing survived the flood. Right after saying the flood waters covered the mountains, it says:

And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man: All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died. (KJV, Genesis 7:21-22)

That doesn't leave room for any Nephilim to be on the outside of the Ark (which is a legitimate theory as to how they survived).

FOR

The few modern bibles that are indeed making a connection are making it based on an assumption. And although flawed in many places, to the translators' credit, it is a pretty well founded assumption.

Here's why. While we are called the sons of God a lot in the New Testament, it never happens in the Old. This is important because Hebrew and Greek function differently. Every single place that the Old Testament says "sons of God" it is referring to angelic beings. To assume that it is the same for Genesis is indeed a small jump to make, but a founded one. It would be a better choice to go with "sons of God," due to the fact that it is closer to the original text. But this isn't necessarily a wrong idea.

Perhaps a bad translation, but this doesn't make the idea wrong.

This idea also does not appear only because of the new bible versions. It shows up in the book of Enoch thousands of years ago, and was considered cannon by the Jews.

When it comes to the idea that angels can't produce offspring with women, Jesus says that the angels in heaven don't. But He specifically says the angels in heaven. Some might think that's a stretch, but in the Old Testament, you see truly physical angels when dealing with Lot. And men actually ask for them to treat them in their corrupted sexual way.

While the argument that the Nephilim survived by hanging on the side of the Ark is indeed a real argument. As discussed above, it isn't biblical. However, some speculate that more angels may have come back down to earth after the flood of Noah, or that the angels' genes might have survived through the wives of Noah's sons.

When the Bible refers to Noah as blameless in his generations. It is using a word that can be used for animals. It basically means to be spotless, without defect, etc.

These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God. (KJV, Genesis 6:9)

The word here for "perfect" is tāmîm. Here's where it is used in the Bible:

- Exodus 12:5: "Your lamb shall be without blemish"

- Leviticus 1:3: "a male without blemish"
- Leviticus 22:21: "it shall be perfect to be accepted"

Every time it is used it refers to physical perfection. Not morality. So the Bible is saying that Noah was physically perfect in his generation. Which is weird, unless it has to do with the Nephilim. Then it makes a lot more sense.

PART 3: THE TRANSLATORS AND TEXTS

This sections focuses on the men that have created the corrupted new bible versions and the manuscripts used to put them together.

THE MEN

The editors of the new versions, along with the authors, Greek texts, manuscripts, lexicons and dictionaries used to create these new versions, hold beliefs that will shock an orthodox Christian. And the new texts that these "versions" are based off of, have been corrupted.

NEW VERSION INGREDIENTS

First off: the reference dictionary used by new version editors to research Greek etymology, was edited by Hitler's "high priest," who was later tried and found guilty of war crimes as an accessory in the death of millions.

New "versions" are based off of recently found Greek texts. Many claim that these manuscripts—the Greek texts—are "newer and better."

What is ignored, is the fact that these "glorious" new manuscripts were edited by Spiritualists. Or, for those who don't know what that means, those that seek contact with the dead through seances. And you might want to know that two of the new version editors were also involved with Spiritualism.

NEW AGERS

While the facts already stated are horrific on their own, the NIV, NASB, and others versions, hold beliefs that parallel to that of New Agers.

For those who don't know what a New Ager is: New Agers have the expressed goal of infiltrating the evangelical church, and slowly making the Bible conform to their One World Religion. New Agers openly worship Lucifer—Satan.

The NIV's chief editor boasts his versions heresy:

This [his NIV] shows the great error that is so prevalent today in some orthodox Protestant circles, namely the error that regeneration depends upon faith . . .and that in order to be born again man must first accept Jesus as Savior.¹

[F]ew clear and decisive texts say that Jesus is God.²

The NASB's progenitor ("the mediator between East and West" to his colleagues) was an instrumental member of the "gathering" which East West Journal call the kick off event for the New Age movement and "East West Synthesis."³

This man refereed to his alterations to the Bible saying:

The changes thus far . . .are in the right direction . . .and should contain the germs of a new theology.⁴

How common do you think it is for people to lose the ability to speak? Because five new version editors (so far) have gone completely mute, and one new version editor has gone insane.

The few Greek manuscripts underlying new versions, contain yet undisclosed material. This material is being called for by new version editors and New Agers alike. Could this version be the final "universal bible" called for by the UN Assistant Secretary General Robert Muller?

TRANSLATION METHODS

These are a couple things that modern translators have done in their translations, that aren't necessarily good. Most of them are done in the name of clarity.

CAPITALIZED PRONOUNS

In modern bibles, they do something honorable—but in some places—misleading: they capitalize all pronouns dealing with God, Jesus, or the Holy Spirit.

I do this throughout this entire paper, I think it is an honorable thing to do. But it isn't in the original Greek or Hebrew. And sometimes it can be misleading.

For example, what pronouns should be capitalized here?

The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way. (KJV, Psalms 37:23)

It says that "The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and" but does the Lord delight in the mans way? Or does the man delight in the Lord's way?

THEE'S AND THOU'S

Thee's and thou's have mostly been taken out of modern bibles. But this makes things harder to understand in many instances. (For how to deal with unfamiliar words, see UNFAMILIAR WORDS on page 89)

The main issue with replacing "thee's" and "thou's" with "you" in the Bible, is that it makes certain parts of the Bible harder to understand, and in some places, can lead to misunderstandings.

"Thou" is the subject form of the second-person singular pronoun. You would use it when referring to one person. For example, "Thou art a good friend" was a way of addressing a close friend. On the other hand, "you" was the subject form of the second-person plural pronoun. You would use it when addressing multiple people or a group.

So, you use "thou" or "thee" for one person, "you" or "your" for multiple. With that in mind, read this KJV verse:

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: (KJV, Luke 22:31)

Here, the Lord Jesus isn't speaking to just Simon. If He was, He would have said "thou" where He says "you." By saying "you" here, the Bible tells you that Jesus is speaking to more than one person.

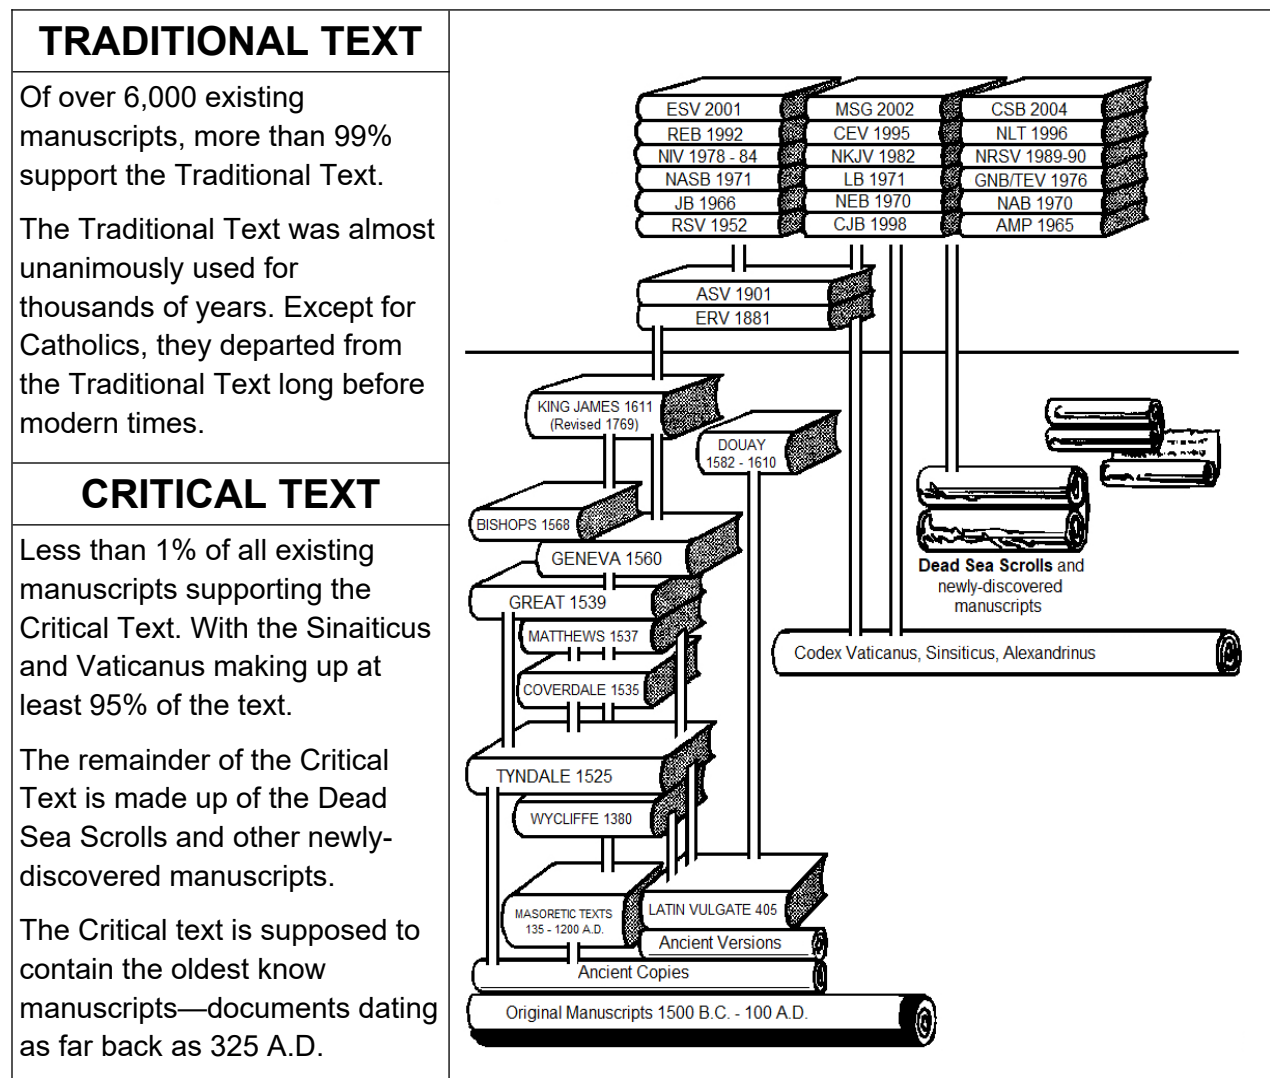

THE MANUSCRIPTS

Although the new versions change and corrupt the original Bible text, are they wrong? If new versions make Jesus a liar in John 7:8, that's heresy. But if that's what really happened, what can be done? Jesus must not be the Son of God, and thus is a phony and an antichrist.

So, lets see why these bibles make Jesus a liar.

THE TRADITIONAL AND CRITICAL TEXT

In the KJV, the New Testament is created using what is called the Traditional Text. In modern times, the NIV, NASB, ESV, and almost every other modern bible, use the Critical Text.

The Critical Text is claimed to be the best text of the Bible we have. But the fact that it is based on a fringe minority of texts is a revealing statistic in itself.

But if these fringe minority are the oldest and best manuscripts, then it doesn't matter how few of them there are.

CRITICAL CONTRADICTIONS

The Traditional Text confirms the KJV Bible. But the Critical Text has many internal problems. It contradicts itself in many, many places. In fact, Burgon once wrote:

It matters nothing that they are discovered on careful scrutiny to differ essentially, not only from ninety-nine out of a hundred of the whole body of extant MSS. besides, but even from one another. In the gospels alone B (Vaticanus) is found to omit at least 2877 words; to add, 536, to substitute, 935; to transpose, 2098; to modify 1132 (in all 7578); - the corresponding figure for Aleph being 3455 omitted, 839 added, 1114 substituted, 2299 transposed, 1265 modified (in all 8972). And be it remembered that the omissions, additions, substitutions, transpositions, and modifications, are by no means the same in both. It is in fact easier to find two consecutive verses in which these two mss. differ the one from the other, than two consecutive verses in which they entirely agree.¹

This does not happen in the Traditional Texts. Only the Critical Texts have major contradictions.

Along with disagreeing among themselves, they also have many internal problems. These problems are great enough that they can prove the Vaticanus and Sinaiticus to be frauds. And if this is true, the Critical Text is terribly undermined.

The Vaticanus is assumed to be from about 325-350 A.D.² And the Sinaiticus from around 350-375 A.D.³ But not only do the Sinaiticus and Vaticanus contradict each other all over the place, there is mounting evidence that they are not ancient manuscripts, but forgeries.

That is a bold statement, and bold statements require bold facts. And we've got them.

THE OLDEST AND MOST COMPLETE

Some wonder how many complete copies of the Bible we have. And I have been asked this question on multiple occasions.

The question isn't as straightforward as it sounds. Do they mean complete versions of the Bible we have now? Just the Old or New Testaments? Does the New Testament have to be in Greek? Or does Latin suffice?

These questions and more make it somewhat more difficult to answer directly. But here's my best shot.

When it comes down to it, we don't possess any complete ancient copies of the Bible. We don't have any manuscript or book from ancient times that contains all the books of our modern Bible.

However, when it comes to the Old Testament, there exist thousands of complete and partial copies for the individual books of the Old Testament. And while these partials are plenty, we also possess one complete copy of the Old Testament Bible. This is the Codex Leningrad.

Codex Leningrad is debated to be from either 1008 A.D. or 1009 A.D.¹ It is the only copy of the complete Old Testament that we currently have.

And apart from the thousands of partial manuscripts we have for the Greek New Testament, we have discovered a total of around 61 complete copies.²

These copies have been dated anywhere from the 2nd A.D. century, to the 15th A.D. century.

In total, we have zero complete manuscripts of the entire Bible as a whole. But we have obtained one complete copy of the Old Testament from the 11th century, and over 60 copies of the Greek New Testament from between the 2nd and 15th centuries.

OLDEST

Some say that the oldest complete version of the Bible is codex Sinaiticus, or Vaticanus, or they even might claim that codex Alexandrinus is the oldest complete copy of the Bible. But none of these are actually what they are claimed to be.

As you will be show in the next section, codex Sinaiticus and Vaticanus are not anywhere near as old as they are claimed to be. They are both, along with the Alexandrian manuscripts, corrupt as well.

So, while the earliest New Testament manuscript is considered to be codex Sinaiticus (followed by Vaticanus and Alexandrinus), due to the untrustworthiness of these codices, the oldest (also complete) New Testament manuscript is codex Ephraemi Rescriptus.

Codex Ephraemi Rescriptus is dated to about the 5th century A.D.³

And while it is believed that complete versions of the Bible (both Old and New Testaments) were created around the 4th century, no complete copy has survived in one piece to this day.

VATICANUS

Here's what's wrong with the Vaticanus.

MINUSCULE LETTERS

Until around the 9th and 10th centuries, Greek was written in uncial lettering. That is, EVERYTHING WAS CAPITALIZED. After the 9th and 10th centuries¹, Greek started to be written in minuscule letters—that being all lowercase lettering.

So, here's an easy test: if the Vanicanus is really from the 4th century, it won't have any minuscule lettering.

Such an easy fool proof test, but guess what? It has minuscule lettering. About the first half of Genesis is written in minuscule letters.

The classic excuse is that the first half of Genesis was lost to time, and scribes came in later and added it back in. But a careful examination of Genesis shows that there is no difference between the parchment².

Different scribes, maybe. Replaced portions, no.

MISSING BOOKS

The Vaticanus is missing the books of 1 and 2 Timothy, and Philemon.

The fact that this "4th century" manuscript contains minuscule letters, has already put the integrity of this document at stake, and the fact that these books are missing does not uphold this integrity.

INSERTED PAGES

Some places in the Vaticanus show that pages have been added. This can be seen when a page is a different size and color than the surrounding pages.

The difference in color indicate that the inserted pages are not as old as the surrounding text.

And added pages fit perfectly with this next piece of evidence.

PAGE NUMBERS

Very helpfully, the Vaticanus has pagination in the upper and outer corner of every page. The codex contains 1536 pages. But in the book of Acts, the pagination has been obviously overwritten, or crossed out and a new larger number is written above the first.

This shows that leaves were likely added at a later date, and does not uphold this codex's integrity.

WORMHOLES

Finally, if the Vaticanus is from the 4th century, there would be countless wormholes in it's pages—and there are. But what is so amazing, is that the text on the pages go around the wormholes.

This anomaly is obviously not possible in the wormhole came after the text. But if the parchment was rewritten at a later date, why would the scribe not use a fresh piece of parchment? It is very strange and unlikely that a scribe would use defective parchment.

Another thing, the wormholes only appear in one page at a time, not in the previous or next page. This would seem to indicate that the holes were worn in the parchment before they were bound into a book.

There are also many rectangular holes in the parchment. As to why, no one has any idea. But worms certainly didn't create them.

OVERWRITTEN

There are many places where words have been over written with new words. Apparently, someone took it upon themselves to "correct" the document.

The corrections are believed to have been made during the 10th or 11th centuries, but this is still theory.

In fact, at one point a note can be seen in the margins of Hebrews³. It read in two ways:

The first is: "Fool and knave, can't you leave the old reading alone, and not alter it!"

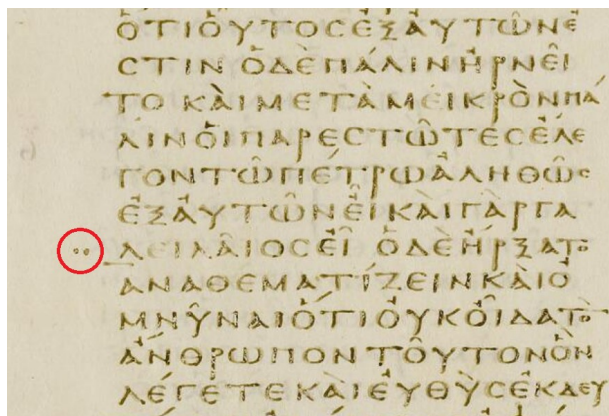

And the second: "Untrained troublemaker, forgive the ancient [reading]; do not convert it."

This is very bad for the Vaticanus. How can we trust this to be the preserved words of God if people in the past crossed out and decided to rewrite words? What about a note that literally accuses the writer of altering the text?

HISTORY

The earliest the Vaticanus was cataloged was in 1475⁴, that's when it first showed up in history. We also have no idea who wrote the document.

Couple this with the fact that the manuscript has undergone many corrections and changes (authors again unknown), makes it an unreliable document.

UMLAUTS

The Vaticanus as we know it, has been overwritten by a chocolate brown ink. The original ink was an apricot-color. This is a settled fact.

The Vaticanus New Testament is riddled with umlauts—which look like a colon turned on its side (shown to left). It was discovered in 1995, that these umlauts show up only where the Vaticanus differs from the Traditional Text⁵. This means that the missing portions of text (that are included in the Traditional Text) are older than the Vaticanus.

Some argue that the umlauts were added in at a later time, but this is where the ink colors come in. If the umlauts were only added in later, you wouldn't have any in the apricot-color ink. But we can see that the umlauts were indeed in the original text. Some of the apricot-color ink hasn't been completely covered by the newer brown ink.

This proves that the original author was aware of the text, and chose to leave it out. And since the Vaticanus is supposed to be one of the oldest documents we have, it proves that the missing verses are in fact, older still.

It is correct that the KJV have these verses. And with the given evidence, incorrect for the modern bibles to not include them.

SINAITICUS

Let's test the Sinaiticus, can it stand up to even the slightest scrutiny? Here's what's wrong with the Sinaiticus.

COLOR TEST

Look at the picture to the right. Notice the color difference of Sinaiticus (top, middle) when compared to the Latin Vulgate (top, right), which is only from the 15th century.

One of the easiest test we can do is the color test. Is the Sinaiticus match the known color of other parchments? No. Not even close¹.

How are we supposed to trust that this thing is more than 1,600 years old if it hasn't even changed color?

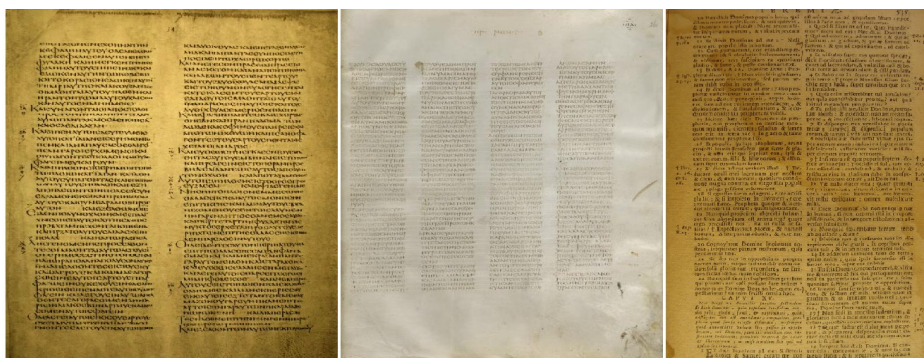

This might sound ridiculous, but every other parchment we have, has colored as it aged. The older the codex, the darker the color. That's just fact.

Out of the thousands of documents we have, the Sinaiticus stands out as a fraud when it comes to color.

SCRUBBING

In the forgery of documents that are meant to be look old, there is a process called scrubbing. Scrubbing is were a person takes an abrasive material and possibly some light acid, like lemon juice, to the parchment. You then have text that appears old and faded.

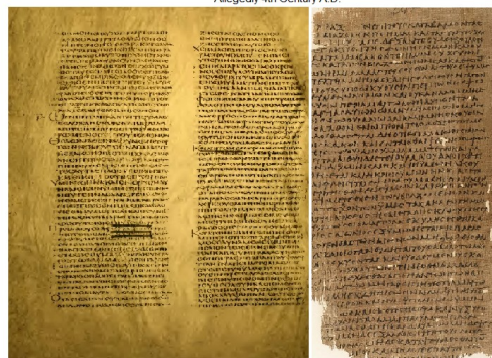

And there is evidence that this has been applied to the Sinaiticus. Multiple pages will have crystal clear text, and then the next will have blurred out text. Sometimes text is blurry only halfway down the page. This is clear evidence for forgery.

Codex Bezae

Codex Sinaiticus
Allegedly 4th Century A.D.

Latin Vulgate
15th Century A.D.

Codex Alexandrinus
5th Century A.D.

Chester Beatty Papyri

PAINTING

Another technique to forge parchments, is to stain them with something to make them appear old. Again, there is evidence that this has been applied to the Sinaiticus.

If this technique were applied hastily to anything hastily with a paint brush, you would get streaks of darker areas due to the stain not being applied evenly. You would also get darker and lighter pages, due to more stain being used on certain pages. All this is exactly what you see in the Sinaiticus.

NON-PRINTED TEXTUAL DIFFERENCES

There are some differences between the Traditional Text and the Critical Text that haven't made it into the modern bibles.

GOLIATH

How tall was Goliath? According to the Traditional Text (the KJV text), he stood at 6 cubits tall.

And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. (KJV, 1 Samuel 17:4)

A cubit is the length from the elbow to the tip of the middle finger¹. Currently a cubit is about 18 inches long, but older cubits were around 21 inches long.

A span is the distance from the tips of both thumb and pinky when all fingers are spread out². This distance was considered to be about half a cubit.

So this puts Goliath between 9 foot 9 inches tall, and 11 foot 4 inches tall.

However, both the Dead Sea Scrolls, and Vaticanus and Alexandrian manuscripts put Goliath at 4 cubits and a span³. That's only between 6 foot 9 inches, and 7 foot 10 inches tall.

Some unbeivers use the Vaticanus and Alexandrian manuscripts as proof that the story of David and Goliath was nothing more than a fight with a slightly taller-than-average man. They can now use these manuscripts as proof that this giant was nothing more than a bunch of hype.

While this Goliaths height hasn't been changed in that many modern bibles, translators are pushing for the change.

While hardly any acually implement this textual difference, here are the one's that do:

KJV	LOCATION	ISV	WRONG IN

MORE DELETED VERSES

The modern bibles obviously remove a lot of verses from their texts, but the Vaticanus and Sanaiticus remove even more than this³. Remember, when counting all the verses that are left out of any bible translation today, the total comes up at 45 verses.

This is all verses left out of either the Vaticanus or Sanaiticus. You can also see when one of the verses are taken out of any modern bible.

That is 16 more verses that can be left out of modern bibles under the authority of the "oldest and best manuscripts." As you can see, if both the Vaticanus and Sanaiticus agree, typically the verse gets removed from modern versions.

And if the translators choose, there could be over 60 verses removed from a bible translated from the Vaticanus and Sanaiticus. That's a lot of verses. But I guess it's okay if you don't care what's actually in the Bible.

The Vaticanus and Sanaiticus can't decide on which verses get removed. The Vaticanus removes 1 Peter 5:3, the Sanaiticus keeps it, and the modern versions keep it likewise.

But remember, the verses that are removed, are removed based on these faulty, untrustworthy manuscripts.

KJV AND THE LATIN VULGATE

The Latin Vulgate was a Catholic copy of the Bible that was extremely corrupted for the benefit of the Catholic church.

Many criticize the KJV Bible saying that it used the Latin Vulgate in it's translation, and is thus contaminated by Catholicism. But that's not true. The KJV was based on manuscripts and previous translations. However, it was not based on the Latin Vulgate and was not translated from such.

One place that someone could suggest that it did borrow from the Latin Vulgate, is in the vocabulary of the KJV itself. Terms like "creation," "salvation," "justification," and "testament" were terms that were likely borrowed from the Latin Vulgate. However, this is a superfluous detail, seeing as this is only a choice of words, and not a translation method. If someone where to do this today, it might look like someone using the word "testament" instead of "evidence," "proof," or "witness."

The KJV was based on the Bishops' Bible, Tyndale's Bible, Coverdale's bible, Matthew's bible, and the Geneva Bible, along with many manuscripts and original documents. Only two of these previous versions referenced the Vulgate, Matthew's bible and Coverdale's bible.

TYNDALE

Tyndale's Bible was based upon the original texts and manuscripts. Tyndale did not translate from Latin as many versions had done before him, he went directly to the source and thus created a true translation detached form the Latin Vulgate.

COVERDALE

Coverdale claimed to have translated directly from Greek and Hebrew, but it is believed that he relied heavily on Tyndale's work. Some also conclude that the Latin Vulgate was used in his work.

MATTHEW

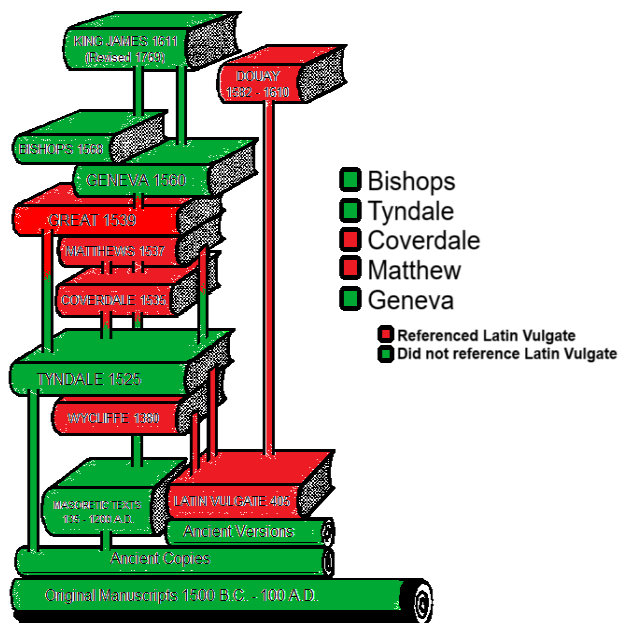

Matthew's bible used the Latin Vulgate in the Old Testament, but the New Testament remained untouched by it.

GENEVA

The Geneva Bible was not based on any earlier versions of the Bible. Instead, translators William Whittingham, Myles Coverdale, Christopher Goodman, Anthony Gilby, Thomas Sampson, and William Cole created a complete translation from the Greek and Hebrew manuscripts of the time.

BISHOPS

The Bishops Bible was created in 1568, it was meant to replace the Great bible of 1539. The Great bible was based on the Latin Vulgate and neither were used in the translation of the Bishops Bible.

CONCLUSION

While the KJV doesn't directly reference the Latin Vulgate, it does reference some earlier bibles that did. The effect this has on the KJV is minimal though.

The main effects are that of certain Greek and Hebrew words being left in Latin or translated the way it was previously in times past. One such example is in Isaiah 14:12, where Helel is left as the Latin word Lucifer. Another can be seen in Job 39:9, the word r'ém is used in the Hebrew. We aren't sure what this word means and it has been translated as many different words. In the KJV it is "unicorn."

BIBLICAL MANUSCRIPT HISTORY

For an overview of biblical manuscript history, the following table has been compiled*. It contains the most prominent manuscript from history and lists them according to the most commonly accepted dates (with the exception of codices Vaticanus and Sinaiticus, these are provably inappropriately placed in most timelines and stand corrected here).

NAME	DATE	CONTENTS	DETAILS
Ketef Hinnom Scrolls	c. 625–600 B.C.	Two silver amulets inscribed with the Priestly Blessing (Numbers 6:24–26) in Paleo-Hebrew. Earliest known biblical text, referencing YHWH.	Discovered 1979–1980 by Gabriel Barkay in burial caves at Ketef Hinnom, Jerusalem.
DeA.D. Sea Scroll 4Q17	c. 250 B.C.	Fragmentary scroll with portions of Exodus and Leviticus in Hebrew. One of the earliest Qumran scrolls.	Discovered 1947–1956 in Cave 4, Qumran, near the DeA.D. Sea.
DeA.D. Sea Scroll 4QSamb	c. 250 B.C.	Fragments of 1 Samuel in Hebrew, one of the oldest DeA.D. Sea Scrolls, showing textual variants from Masoretic Text.	Discovered 1947–1956 in Cave 4, Qumran.
Nash Papyrus	c. 150–100 B.C.	Four papyrus fragments with the Ten Commandments and Shema Yisrael in Hebrew, likely a liturgical text or mezuzah.	Purchased 1902 in Egypt by Walter Llewellyn Nash from an antiquities dealer.
DeA.D. Sea Scroll 1QIsa	c. 125 B.C.	Nearly complete scroll of Isaiah (17 parchment sheets) in Hebrew, with minor textual variants from Masoretic Text.	Discovered 1947 in Cave 1, Qumran, by Bedouin shepherds.

NAME	DATE	CONTENTS	DETAILS
DeA.D. Sea Scroll 1QIsb	c. 100 B.C.	About 75% complete scroll of Isaiah in Hebrew, fragmentary but significant for textual comparison.	Discovered 1947 in Cave 1, Qumran.
DeA.D. Sea Scroll 4Q12	c. 100 B.C.	Fragments of Psalms in Hebrew, part of over 200 biblical scrolls from Qumran.	Discovered 1947–1956 in Cave 4, Qumran.
En-Gedi Scroll	c. 100–200 A.D.	Charred parchment fragment with Leviticus 1–2 in Hebrew, digitally unwrapped using 3D imaging.	Discovered 1970 in a synagogue at En-Gedi, Israel, destroyed by fire.
Papyrus P52	c. 100–150 A.D.	Small papyrus fragment (2.4x3.5 inch) from a codex, containing John 18:31–33, 37–38 in Greek. Earliest known New Testament manuscript.	Purchased 1920 in Egypt by Bernard Grenfell; translated 1934 by C.H. Roberts.
Papyrus P98	c. 100–200 A.D.	Papyrus fragment with Revelation 1:13–20 in Greek, from a codex.	Discovered before 1971 in Egypt; published by Guy Wagner in 1971.
Papyrus P104	c. 150–200 A.D.	Papyrus fragment with Matthew 21:34–37, 43, 45 in Greek, from a codex.	Found in Oxyrhynchus, Egypt; published 1997.

In total, there are about 6,000 Greek New Testament manuscripts, over 10,000 Latin New Testament manuscripts, and more than 9,300 manuscripts in other various languages.¹

For the Old Testament, we may possibly have over 20,000 manuscripts and fragments.

To put this in perspective, you can see a table on the next page* that compares the manuscript evidence for the Bible compared to the manuscript evidence for other well known and trusted works.

When you see the Bible this way, you start to question why we don't trust it when we trust all of these other authors.

CONCLUSION

With the information I have shown you, is the Sinaiticus or Vaticanus reliable? Are they even from the 4th century? You can easily find online high quality copies of them online and study them for yourself. You don't have to take my word for it, go do your own research.

And remember, whether you read a NIV or ESV, CJB or NLB, just remember what makes that bible.

PART 4: MY BIBLE

This section is going to be an overview of many bible versions.

This section may cover much of what is in part 1, 2 and 3, but will not go into as much detail here.

The goal of this section is for people to look up their specific bible version, and at a glance, see what's wrong with it.

BIBLE BREAK-DOWN

This is basically an overview for modern bibles. This section won't tell you everything about your bible, but it will get you started.

In this section, links to other parts of this document, may (in some cases) not show verses from the NKJV, MSG, AMP, CJB, TS2009, or LB. You will have to look up certain verses in these bibles manually.

As you read through these tests, just ask yourself if you're really okay with your bible being wrong on one of these issues.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, please use the KJV Bible. Not because I say so, or because someone thinks it is the best Bible, but because IT IS, and you know IT IS the best Bible.

Go over the information in this paper. Don't take my word for it, look things up yourself.

If, after being shown all this evidence against these modern bibles, you're still fine with using a corrupt, non-literal translations, just know, a committee member for the NIV agrees; Herbert M. Wolf once wrote:

[N]on-literal translations enhance accuracy . . .¹

CONCLUSION.....	123

Although the use of the new bibles is incredibly widespread and common, I have been shown the truth. And I praise God for showing me this lie. He is light in the darkness, hope in trouble, truth in the midst of lies. Though the corrupted bibles have never been more popular, God has not allowed the evidence of truth to be hid.

Praise God, for He is worthy of our praise!

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

James 1:5

"Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment."

1 Corinthians 1:10
